

COVER LETTER

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the Linux Support Engineer position at Canonical. With 2 years of experience in providing technical support, I am confident that I possess the skills and knowledge necessary to excel in this role.

Throughout my career, I have gained extensive experience in supporting customer with Linux application issues. I am well-versed in a wide range of Linux distributions including Ubuntu, Red Hat, and CentOS. In addition, I have a solid understanding of cloud computing due to my experience as working as support engineer in Azure.

As a Linux Support Specialist, I am committed to delivering exceptional customer service and support to all clients. I have a proven track record of successfully resolving complex technical issues and providing timely solutions to ensure minimal disruption to business operations. I possess excellent communication and interpersonal skills, and I am able to effectively communicate technical information to both technical and non-technical audiences.

Furthermore, I am highly motivated and thrive in a fast-paced environment. I am always eager to learn and stay up-to-date with the latest technologies and industry trends to provide the best possible support to clients. I am confident that my technical expertise, strong work ethic, and dedication to customer satisfaction make me an ideal candidate for this position.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss my qualifications further.

Sincerely,

Temitope Obasanmi
